

Colossians 3:1 You Have No Idea!

Colossians 3:1 Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand.

1. One of the most evil attacks from Satan is to try to make you feel alone. When you acknowledge Christ as your Savior, you are _____.
2. I need to live each day like I know Christ is _____ _____ ... because He is.
3. Prior to being rescued by Christ I was not in control of myself. I was _____ (controlled) by my sinful desires and didn't know.

4. Born again means starting all over and like a newborn, I will need help learning how to walk.

- a. The _____ in me
- b. The _____ of God to guide me
- c. The _____ of God to help me.

2 Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth.

5. One of the purposes of the church is to _____ us how to walk.
6. I need to be constantly reminding myself of my ultimate retirement ... Heaven ... a reality _____.
7. Jesus saves you. He did all the work to be your savior, but you are the one that has to make Him _____ Lord. He is The Lord, but is He your Lord? Is Jesus the Lord of your daily life?
8. It's my _____ to pursue an ongoing deeper relationship with God. Then through the Holy Spirit, God will reveal to me the things He wants me to know and do.
