

Colossians 3:7

Don't Give Them the Remote Control to You

1. Sexual sin is a great insult to the gift of our _____ that God has given us.

Colossians 3:7 You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world.

2. I get the best life I can possibly have by trusting Christ enough to _____ Christ.

Colossians 3:8 But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language.

Psalms 4:4 Don't sin by letting anger control you. Think about it overnight and remain silent.

Ephesians 4:26 And "don't sin by letting anger control you." Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry,

3. It is my job to control my anger rather than let anger control me. Ephesians 4:26 tells me this is not only possible but _____ by my Father.

James 1:19 Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry.

4. When you sin by letting your anger react to a situation, you are indicating that you don't think God can _____ it.

5. Anger is an out-of-control emotion that, if not dealt with properly, can lead to actual out-of-control _____.

6. We have to battle within ourselves to not bring our past ways of the world into our daily interactions. We must be different from the world or they won't see the _____ _____ has had on our lives.

7. This response is so different and so difficult that it just might be our greatest form of _____.

Romans 12:1 And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all He has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind He will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship Him.

8. We are to worship Christ by our ongoing _____ to and for Christ.

9. Dealing with our anger and the angry people we encounter means we have to deal with ourselves more than other people.

a. Deal with my _____

b. Deal with my " _____ "

I deserve to be treated better than this.

You don't want what you deserve.

Christ died so you don't have to receive what you deserve.

You deserve Hell.

c. Deal with your new form of _____ worship.

10. What if we discovered that the difficult people we encounter were permitted or even put in front of us by God Himself? Don't give them your _____
_____.
Give it to God!